

Religious Scholarship Program Scholar Timeline

*The scholarship will be payable in one installment for the academic year (August-July) in August and will be split evenly between terms by the institution unless otherwise requested by a student. Please note it is your responsibility as a Bivins Scholar to communicate with your institution to let them know how you would like your scholarship allocated. Examples for how you can request your scholarship be allocated include:

- half for fall semester and half for spring semester
- one-third for fall semester, one-third for spring semester, and one-third for summer
- one-fourth for fall and three-fourths for spring
- etc.
